

We, CEPROCS™ Group are a Central European Procurement Consulting Service Company. Focused on procurement services, we are a fully integrated Business Process Outsourcer. Our employees are our largest and most important asset and value great ideas which gives us a strategic advantage and further opportunities. We aim at creating a safe familiar environment with a 100% support on work-life balance.

Open position: Software Developer

What will your job be about?

- Perform Oracle and SQL databases tuning using a variety of tools and techniques.
- Analyze the application performance and recommends changes to improve performance such as code changes etc.
- Provide technical direction for database design, maintenance and administration.
- Enhance existing applications, add new content, and search engine optimization for our web portal.
- Maintain safety, security, and privacy standards throughout all areas of responsibility.

What we are looking for?

- University degree in Computer Science.
- Proficiency in English language.
- German knowledge represents an advantage.
- OOP (Object Oriented Programming), C#.
- PL/SQL development experience with Oracle.
- MS Visual Studio 2010/2012.
- Very good MS Office knowledge (Microsoft Excel, Power Point and Word).
- Organized, methodical, able to prioritize.
- A commitment to quality and a thorough approach to the work.
- Excellent communication skills and ability to work well within a team.

What do we offer?

- Learning opportunities at CEPROCS™ Academy adapted to your needs and supporting your growth.
- A professional and team oriented work environment.
- An attractive salary package: performance based bonus, meal tickets, health insurance, and sport activities.
- Flexible working hours.

